

Green shores, great event locations

Meet Hannover's 'largest island': Calenberger Neustadt. At the confluence of the rivers Ihme and Leine, students 'chillax' in hip beach clubs or on verdant embankments. A mere stone's throw away from the historical city centre, the Calenberger Straße with its enticing shops, restaurants and snack bars is ideal for a relaxed stroll.

A bedrock of Hannover's cultural life is the Leibniz Theatre on the Kommandanturstraße. To the south, the Marksman's festival, the October festival and the Spring festival, as well as great sports and event locations, such as the HDI Arena, Swiss Life Hall and the Gilde Parkbühne (park stage) guarantee great fun and excitement.

Tip Ice-cream-making courses from October to Easter

Julians Eismanufaktur Birne & Beere

Calenberger Straße 43-45 | birneundbeere.de

Enjoy homemade ice cream made from high-quality local ingredients. These cold delicacies also come in tubs to take home, and can be purchased from the ice cream bike.

Waterloo beer garden

Waterloostraße 1 | waterloo-biergarten.de

The beer garden with the longest tradition: during live broadcasts of football matches, there's a real stadium atmosphere under the shade of the surrounding trees.

BocaChica

Oeltzenstraße 12 | restaurantbocachica.de

The BocaChica is famous for its Caribbean and Dominican dishes and treats, as well as for its spirited salsa, merengue and bachata evenings.

Upcyclingbörse Hannover

Glockseestraße 35 | upcyclingboerse-hannover.de

A paradise for creative types: here you can find 1001 ideas for things to do with discarded materials in changing exhibitions and workshops. Eliminating waste is fun!

Café Safran

Königsworther Straße 39 | cafesafraan.de

Hannover's alternative pub for 35 years. Whether it's breakfast, lunch or a cocktail, there's always something going on here! Fancy carrying on into the evening? Then simply head to Safrans Bar right across the road!

Strandleben

Weddigenufer 29

facebook.com/strandlebenhannover

The banks at the confluence of the Ihme and Leine rivers are home to comfortable deck chairs for spending a relaxed day on the sand. The beach bar serves up cold drinks and tasty snacks for sun-worshippers, who can even hire standup paddle boards, with beginner courses also on offer.

